of two miles and a quarter only scared one out of the six original starters, Moon Daisy declining to isue early in the day. Charles Elwood opened up at 8 to 5 favorite, but closed at 5 to 2. Douro opened second choice at 2. to 1, and was played down to 6 to 5, closing a hot favorite. They were sent away to a perfect start in front of the stand. River Pirate was first to show, but O'Neill, on Charles Elwood, at once drove his mount to the front, followed by Major Daingerfield and Igniter. O'Neill took another wrap and the Major closed up some ground, but Charles Elwood soon drew away from him again. At the far turn the last time Odom on Maor Daingerfield began to make his move nd sent his mount up to the leader and for a few strides was in front, but Fuller. gniter, and Gannon, on Douro, went at heir mounts with hands and heels and ront running head and head. Rounding lon, Fly Lady, 94. into the stretch the pair were running like seven-eighth pole Douro began to tire and gniter drew away, flashing under the wire a winner by one and a half lengths. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 12.-Captain Fox's Hoosiers outplayed the Colonels in the fine points of the game here to-day and won by a score of 4 to 2. Pitching honors were about even, as both twirlers permitted eight singles. Egan was pitted against Newlin, and while the visiting twirler struck out more men than the local man, he had better command. Hogriever's homerun drive practically won the game for the visitors. It came in the third round and started the ball rolling for Indianapolis. Kihm had led off with a clean single and Fox's sacrifice shoved him up a base. Then ville captain let it get away from him and the ball rolled to the fence. The drive went for four bases and two Hoosiers scored, were out. Score: This sent the Indians away in the lead. The Colonels tied the score in their half of the fourth, when hits were bunched off Newlin and a brace of Kentuckians circled the sacks. The visitors saw the raise in the sixth. Hogriever walked, Heydon sacrificed and on Woodruff's out the runner rested on third. Coulter came to the front with a timely hit and Hogriever crossed the plate by exactly the same process the Indians made their final tally in the eighth. Fox opened the round with a single past Sullivan. # GUN CLUB PRACTICE.

Lieut. George Brown, Jr., U. S. N., Was Central Figure at Traps.

Nearly fifty shooters faced the targets in the regular practice events at the Indianapolis Gun Club grounds yesterday afternoon. It was the largest practice shoot that has ever been held in Indianapolis and the scores were above the average. Interest centered largely in the work of Lieut. George Brown, jr., U. S. N., who faced the traps in several events. Lieutenant Brown's father, Admiral Brown, was one of the interested spectators and he watched his son's shooting with manifest interest. Thomas Parry and Mr. Moinett made the only straight records of twenty-five targets eral who broke twenty-four and less out of twenty-five. Jack Fanning, one of the experts of the country, was at the practice shoot and he greatly admired the grounds. He said he desired to see the next grand American handicap brought to Indianapolis, hose who made the best scores were: Mr. Bartley, Joe Gasper, Lieut. George Brown, jr., Mr. Dixon, Mr. Vesseriat, Allen Moinett, Ed Dark, Mose Williams, Ernest H. Tripp, James Wands, Ed. Dickman, Mr. Pollard. Dr. Alexander Jameson, T. H.
